* Future of St Lawrence Sunday School ****

The departure of three teachers over the summer has left Sunday School with only four teachers for the forthcoming year. Together with the low numbers of children attending on a regular basis, and the Baptism on 19th September involving some of our members (when we hope all will be in church in support), it has therefore been decided to run only two Sunday School meetings between now and Christmas instead of the usual four. The current teachers will meet in November to decide on what basis Sunday School should continue.

If you or anyone you know would like to become involved in teaching at Sunday School please contact either Hilary Darque, tel 453929 or Lyn Holness, tel 764210.
