

Newsletter - July 2018

Hello!

As I write this newsletter, the weather outside is scorching, so it's hard to imagine all things woolly! However, that is what will be doing at St Lawrence's in October. We will be running a second Lost Sheep Trail. Based on the successful Messy Church Nativity Sheep Trail, a large number of knitted sheep will be placed in and around the church during the second half of October. Children will be invited to come along to hunt for sheep and fill in a trail leaflet with their names. The Trail will culminate in a special All Age Sheep Service on Sunday 4 November, when all participants will receive a small prize.

After the service the lost sheep will be rounded up and sold at St Lawrence Christmas Fair on 24 November.

In the meantime, if you fancy making a sheep or two, contributions would be most welcome!
